We have ALL sinned and deserve God's judgment. God, the Father, sent His only Son to satisfy that judgment for those who believe in Him. Jesus, the creator and eternal Son of God, who lived a sinless life, loves us so much that He died for our sins, taking the punishment that we deserve, was buried, and rose from the dead according to the Bible. If you truly believe and trust this in your heart, receiving Jesus alone as your Savior, declaring, "Jesus is Lord," you will be saved from judgment and spend eternity with God in heaven.

“One Solitary Life”

He was born in an obscure village, the child of a peasant woman.
 He grew up in still another village, where he worked in a carpenter shop until he was thirty. Then for three years he was an itinerant preacher.

He never wrote a book.

He never held an office.

He never had a family or owned a house.

He didn't go to college.

He never traveled 200 miles from the place where he was born.

He did none of these things one usually associates with greatness.

He had no credentials but himself.

He was only 33 when public opinion turned against him. His friends ran away. He was turned over to his enemies and went through the mockery of a trial. He was nailed to a cross between two thieves. When he was dying, his executioners gambled for his clothing, the only property he had on earth. When he was dead, he was laid in a borrowed grave through the pity of a friend.

Nineteen centuries have come and gone, and today he is the central figure of the human race, the leader of mankind's progress.

All the armies that ever marched, all the navies that ever sailed, all the parliaments that ever sat, all the kings that ever reigned, put together.

“Why do you seek the living among the dead? He is not here; He is Risen!”
(Luke 24:5)

Jesus’ resurrection from the dead is life-changing and life-giving for his followers. Easter’s “joyful news does not change the contemporary world.” On earth, we still must deal with sin, pain, death, and brokenness. And “still before us lie work, discipline, sacrifice. What Easter does, it, provides Christians with “the spiritual power to do the work, accept the discipline and make the sacrifice.”

By defeating the grave, Jesus empowers us to bear our worldly troubles with joy, peace, and hope. His resurrection assures us that trials, tears and suffering are only temporary, while eternal victory and life with Jesus are permanent.
